1. Any swine going to slaughter will be the owner's responsibility.
2. All swine must be from accepted breeds. No feral animals or swine crossed with wild hogs will be accepted.
3. There will not be a market sale for the Open Swine Show.
4. The barrow and gilt divisions will have classes that are separated by weight. Classes will be determined by their weight after all Open Show swine have weighed-in. The class winner and second place will compete for grand and reserve champion barrow and gilt. Champions will compete for supreme champion.
5. All barrows must be physically castrated and completely healed prior to the show.
6. All exhibitors showing in the Open Swine Show must assign sole caretaker.
7. Livestock shall not be exhibited or shown if drugs administered in accordance with federal, state, local statutes, regulations and rules affect the animal's performance or appearance at the event. Any surgical procedure, injections or insertion of foreign material, substance or drug or the external application of any substance (irritant, counter-irritant or similar substance) which could affect the animal's performance or alter its natural contour, confirmation or appearance of an animal's body will not be tolerated.
8. Participants must pre-enter online by September 1, 2026. A $25 entry fee must be included with the entry and paid online.
9. Each exhibitor is eligible to enter an unlimited number of barrows and gilts but will only be allowed to bring TWO (2) of these entries to the show.
